

Our new conference stages

The 33rd Finance Symposium will bring with it some new formats and thus diverse opportunities to expand your professional network. There will also be one or two new digital components to increase interactivity among the participants. However, we will deliberately not follow the path of hybrid events.

Main Stage

On our Main Stage, top international speakers and experts will provide insights into moving business and finance topics. Experience top-class keynotes and exciting talks on the most moving topics from the fields of business, finance, treasury, economics and innovation.

Topic Stage

Our practice-oriented workshops offer deep insights into the world of treasury and finance and go far beyond the mere transfer of knowledge. Experts share their experience, present innovative solutions and discuss daily problems in the world of finance and treasury.

Content Stage

In eight specialist forums, company representatives share their know-how and discuss current issues in treasury. Only at the Finance Symposium can you find all the latest treasury topics.

Interview Stage

In this moderated and recorded format, financial managers, treasurers, exhibitors, but also the „new generation“ or experts with other focuses take a look at future business potentials or simply look beyond the much-mentioned horizon.

Debate Stage

Thematically, the so-called „Debate Stage“ maps the Treasury ecosystem and focuses on opinionated discussions. In a cozy „Viennese coffee house atmosphere“ at „Ella & Louis“ we offer an exclusive discussion format. The duration is about 45 minutes to discuss everyday problems of the treasurer and to answer their questions. Each participant can and should contribute during the discussions and present their own point of view.
