Short description for your homepage

35. FINANCE SYMPOSIUM | 17.-19. April 2024 | Mannheim

THE LEADING CONGRESS FOR FINANCE AND TREASURY MANAGEMENT IN EUROPE.

For 35 years, the Finance Symposium has been an established platform where over 2,300 treasurers, financial experts and industry leaders come together to discuss current trends, best practices and forward-looking solutions in the treasury and finance sector. With inspiring presentations, interactive discussions and a high-caliber stage, the Finance Symposium offers a unique opportunity for networking and discussing. Over the course of three days, the varied program will shed light on the treasury and finance world in all its facets and offer participants professionally challenging topics from finance and treasury management. In addition to the current focal points in the areas of cash management, risk and asset management and corporate finance, technical innovations will also be presented in around 150 presentations. The main stage in 2024 will feature Joe Kaeser with his presentation „The future of the global economy: challenges and opportunities in the 21st century“ and Nina Schick with „The Future of Artificial Intelligence: Opportunities and Challenges for Companies“ and Julius van de Laar on „Race to the White House 2024“. Other highlights include the Treasurer Talk and the CFO Talk. With formats such as the Treasury Café or the Interview Stage, the Finance Symposium also offers participants the opportunity to discuss issues in a smaller setting, as personal networking is the focus of the Finance Symposium.
